

INVITATION

Maiden Annual Anniversary Lecture

Motec Life –UK in Collaboration with
The Ghana High Commission in London, Ministry of Health of Ghana, The Ghana College of Physicians and Surgeons, Lister Hospital –Accra, The International Organization for Migration, The Christian Council of Ghana, The Christian Health Association of Ghana, The National Catholic Diocesan Health Committee, The International Spouses' Association of Ghana, the Ananse Cultural Village, the Akwantukese Festival of the people of New Juaben.

Venue: British Council Auditorium, Accra. 16:00 –18:00, 16th October 2007
Theme: Moving Ghana's Health Forward – the Diasporic Dimension

SPEAKER: DAASEBRE PROFESSOR OTI BOATENG,
Omanhene of New Juaben Traditional State
(Former Government Statistician)

TOPIC
SOCIO-ECONOMIC DIMENSIONS OF MEDICAL INTERVENTION

Chairman: Professor Paul K. Nyame
Rector of the Ghana College of Physicians and Surgeons

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS: Minister of Health, The British High Commissioner in Accra, The Director General of Health, The Rector of the Ghana College of Surgeons, The Secretary General of the Christian Council of Ghana, The Current and Retired Catholic Archbishops of Accra, The Catholic Bishop of Koforidua, The Secretary General - Christian Council of Ghana, the Christian Health Association of Ghana (CHAG). Representative of the National Catholic Diocesan Health Committee, Rep. of Migration and Development in Africa(MIDA), Emeritus Prof E. Q. Archampong (retired Dean, Ghana Medical School), Prof(Emeritus) E. A. Baidoo, Prof. Korsah (retired Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery), Dignitaries from Ghana's University Teaching Hospitals.

www.moteclife.co.uk / POAGATE@aol.com